ACCUSED MEN SCORNED

Defence Closes Case Abrupt. ly, With Many Witnesses Uncalled.

PROSECUTION SURPRISED

Comiskey's Profits in 1920 Put at $225,913, Refuting Charge of Injury to Club.

CHICAGO, July 28 .- The defence in the eball trial rested its case to-night. The action was taken after five Chicago White Sox players, forced by the law to abandon their team in the East and journey 900 miles to testify. had made statements from the witness stand which tended to disprove some of the most important points in the State's evidence against their teammates charged with conspiring to throw the 1919 world series to Cin-

M. the day before the first 1919 world series game. Bill Burns had testified that it was on this day and at these hours that he completed the alleged deal with the defendants whereby they were to throw games in the order desired for $100,000, receiving $20,000 after each game thrown.

To-morrow the State will begin its rebuttal testimony, with indications that Judge Friend may order Saturday and night sessions of court in the hope of getting the case to the jury this

"I think not," said Gleason.

"I think not," said Gleason.
Schalk said he believed all the defendants were at practise, as he had not missed any. Eddie Collins, Ray Wilkinson and Dick Kerr were sure all were present and Collins said he and Weaver left the park together and went to the races that afternoon.
Schalk then was called as a State witness.

"I did, but I can't remember what room," was the reply. Burns had testified as to another meeting that night. All of the players were asked if they had an opinion as to whether the defendants played to the best of their ability, but the State's objections to answers were sustained.

Dick Kerr was indignant over being called here for two minutes of testimony.

day of the year to say that," he mut-tered, as he walked by the defendants without looking at them. The closing of the defence case was announced with-out warning and with a score of wit-nesses waiting to testify.

This testimony was admitted over the vigorous objections of the State, Judge Hugo M. Friend ruling that the defency was entitled to show that the baseball property of Charles A. Comiskey had not been damased by the alleged gam-bling conspiracy in the 1919 series. The receipts of the world's series in 1919 were $87.166.47, showing that despite the lack of world's series re-ceipts in 1920 the team took in $300,000 more than the preceding year. Mr. Comiskey, owner of the club, receives a salary of from $5.000 to $15.000 at pager, Mr. Grabiner said. Last year Mr. Comiskey took a salary of $50,000. His salary is not included in the profits, but is charged against general expenses, the witness said. Secretary Grabiner's testimony was a distinct victory for the defence, as the indictment accused the players of injuring the club's business. Two members of the White Sox club of that year, John Collins and Harry Liebold, now with Boston, and the starpitcher of the Cincinnati Reds, "Dutch" Ruether, now with the Brooklyn club, were questioned priefly.

Questions intended to show that the players wend suspicious of crookedness in the games, however, were checked by quick objection by the State. Judge Friend sustained the objections and the defence withdrew the witnesses.

Players Forced to Testify.

The testimony of the players who are said to have been double crossed by the men for whom they were testifying was brief, each man being asked the same questions by the defence attorneys who had subpcenaed them, thus forcing them to take part in the trial whether they wished to or not.

Manager Giezon said he left Chicago with his team Monday night, two days before the first game.

"We reached Cincinnati about 8 A. M.," said Gleason, "And went, to the Sinton Hotel. A little before 10 the men went to Redland Field for practise. We got back to the hotel a little before noon."

It was said at the hearing that outstanding accounts of more than $1,000,000 were on the books of one of the companies mentioned. It was charged that there are twenty-five such companies. "An amazing situation has so far been shown," said Magistrate Mancuso. "These poor people have been fleed out of their money and a thorough investigation will have to be made."
